

COMMEMORATIVE STAMP RUBRIC

The commemorative stamp should convey a clear message which reveals the nature of the subject. It should use colors, symbols, shapes and other strategies to convey its message. Artwork should be original and aesthetically sound. It should contain elements of postage stamps and should be memorable. A brief narration, free of mechanical errors, explaining the significance of the subject should be typed on the back of the stamp. Stamps must be student originals, not copies of previous commemorative stamps.
