

Activities

1. After reading The Wall do an art activity in which students write their names, etc. in glue. Allow the glue to dry, and then make rubbings of the names.
2. Have students discuss the problems Vietnam veterans faced upon returning home. Interview a Vietnam veteran. How was this different from WWII veterans returning?
3. Have students research how the War in Vietnam evolved. Tell the timetable of events leading to Kennedy's Domino Scare.
4. Discuss the word controversy. Explain that there are at least two sides to every controversy. Talk about pros and cons concerning something that the students are familiar. Make a T-Chart with the discussion ideas. Then enlighten the students about the differences of the homefront attitude towards Vietnam as compared to WWII.

*The Kent State debacle could be introduced followed by showing students articles about Virginia Tech and the Williams Hall Occupation.
5. Research the fire bombing of Price Hall at Virginia Tech.
